

Do you know someone who loves reading but who can't get to their library now?

The Library at Home service is available to Cambridgeshire residents of any age who find it difficult to get to the library, whether this is due to disability, illness or caring responsibilities.

The Library at Home service brings books direct to your door

To ask for this service email Volunteers@cambridgeshire.gov.uk or speak to a member of library staff

Visit our webpage